Questions

we'll discuss...

- What are the foundational principles of biblical worship that transcend culture and can unify us in an age of cultural and generational tensions over worship issues?
- How can we engage in multi-ethnic expressions of worship that will help us welcome and reach out to the mosaic of ethnicities in our communities?
- How can we draw from the rich diversity of worship expressions around the world to enrich our own North American worship practices?

Outcomes

You will...

- Gain a biblical perspective of the inseparable connection between global worship, global mission, and the local church, helping you to participate in God's purposes at the local and global levels.
- Gain a vision for multi-cultural worship in your church, learning global Christian songs that reflect the ethnicities of your community and beyond, and how to use them in services.
- Learn about expressions of worship around the globe; hear, see, and be inspired by the ways that worldwide churches are using culturally appropriate music and arts in their worship.

Workshops

Saturday morning breakout sessions:

- Latino worship: repertoire and general style
- African-American worship: repertoire and general style
