International Council of Ethnodoxologists (ICE)

... a network for culturally appropriate Christian worship

Are you graduating this spring? Press “reply” and send us your name, degree earned, and if your graduation involves completing a thesis or project, send us its title. We’ll celebrate with you in the May issue!

Reports and Resources:

- See videos of global songs and worship from the “ICE band” at last January’s Calvin Worship Symposium <http://vimeo.com/19435641> -<http://vimeo.com/19405290>. Many thanks to the following ICE members for their participation and for long hours of preparation: David Bailey, Joy Curtis, Josh Davis, Jinhee Han, C. Michael Hawn, Eunju Jamie Jun, Jaewoo and Joy Kim, Paul Neeley, Kenny Wallace. Thanks also to the Calvin students and friends who sat in with the band.
- EMAFF - the Ethnomusicology and Arts FaceBook Forum – will introduce you to some of the people in our EthnoArts community through posted bios and gives you the opportunity to informally ask questions and dialog with these like-minded people. If you are on FaceBook and interested in being added, send your FB profile link to Rob Baker and ask to be added to the group. This week there were discussions on the terms EthnoArts, ethnodoxology, and ethnomusicology as well as the possibility of using some Russian Orthodox liturgical patterns in Ukrainian Protestant worship.
- Want to hear 98 old and new gospel music great songs? They’re streaming for free, in an 8-hour program, until May 6. www.npr.org/2011/04/25/135546933/train-to-glory-a-gospel-music-mix&sc=nl&cc=mn-20110425

Upcoming Events:

Arts in Mission 2011: Training for Cross-Cultural Ministry

ICE, SIL, WEA Mission Commission, and AllNations are co-sponsoring a training event for Christian artists, mission leaders, trainers and facilitators whose purpose is to use the arts in cross-cultural mission. This intensive training session will be September 4-11, 2011 at AllNations Christian College in the UK. We hope you will join us at this global, watershed training event to learn how to use a new resource – a field manual for cross-cultural arts workers. The arts under focus will include drama, movement and dance, music, visual art, storytelling and more. Sessions will also involve small group interaction, times of creative worship, evening mini-concerts, and learning about arts ministries in many parts of the world. The early-bird price for registration ends today, April 30, 2011. Cost and other registration details can be found online at: www.worldofworship.org/AiM2011/

Ethnodoxology in Christian Ministry, ICE's annual course, will be offered at Ouachita Baptist University (OBU), May 16-20, 2011. OBU is located in Arkadelphia, Arkansas. The course is being offered for the first time this year for undergraduate credit as well as graduate credit through B.H. Carroll Theological Institute. There is a workshop option available for persons already engaged in full-time ministry or missions. An on-campus housing-and-meals package is available for participants. Info: www.tinyurl.com/edox2011 or write Dr. Rob Hewell - hew...@obu.edu 870.245.5133.

The ICE network exists to encourage and equip Christ-followers in every culture to express their faith through their own heart music and other arts.

We facilitate online networking and provide resources for the development of culturally appropriate Christian worship, utilizing insights from ethnomusicology, missiology, worship studies and the arts.
